Homework Policy

Rationale

Homework is an important part of a student's education. It is set to:

- Consolidate or extend material taught in class at school.
- Allow students the chance to think and work by themselves.
- Assist in the development of positive study habits.
- Complete any unfinished work from lessons.

Procedures

Student's Responsibility:

- Accurately record specific tasks in their diary.
- Ensure they understand the tasks to be undertaken.
- Complete the tasks set to the best of their ability.
- Have necessary equipment to complete set tasks (eg books, pens, etc)
- Show their diary to parents for information and signing.
- Return the diary to school daily.

Teacher's Responsibility:

- Inform parents of the school's Homework Policy
- Ensure that homework set is:
 - Useful and worth doing.
 - Reasonable in length and difficulty.
 - Well explained so that students know exactly what they have to do.
 - Relevant to their current learning.
 - Checked on the following day or on a regular basis.
- Check that homework is recorded in the diary before the student leaves school.
- Set work on specific nights as per homework timetable.
- Inform the student and family, via a diary note of any incomplete work.
- Ensure that due dates for assignments or projects are entered into diaries by students.

Parent's Responsibility:

- Provide the opportunity and an appropriate environment for their child to complete homework successfully.
- Check daily to see if homework has been set.
- Sign their child's diary weekly.
- Inform the teacher if the child is having difficulty, via a note in the diary.
- Inform the teacher if the homework isn't completed, via a note in the diary.
